

MONDAY REPORT

Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor
February 18, 1991

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-5
Date: 9-29-95

DON'T FORGET BLACK HISTORY MONTH ACTIVITIES

Two members of the Tuscaloosa City Council will present a program from 10:30 a.m. -12:00 noon of February 21 at Shelton's Fifteenth Street Campus as part of Black History Month celebration. Councilmen John England and Charles Steele will reflect on the history and progress of the black community in Tuscaloosa. Councilman England is an attorney with the law firm of England and Bivens P. C. City Councilman Charles Steele is an owner of Van Hoose, & Steele funeral Home of Tuscaloosa. The program will be held in the Poole Learning Resource Center on the Fifteenth Street Campus.

On Monday, February 25, a panel discussion will be held at 7:00 p.m. in the auditorium on the Skyland Boulevard Campus. "The State of Race Relations in Tuscaloosa County at the Present Time" will be subject for the evening. Serving on the panel are Councilman John England, Dr. Rhoda Johnson, director of Women's Studies at the University of Alabama, Dr. E. Culpepper Clark, executive assistant to President Roger Sayers at the University, and Dr. Arthur Howington, dean of academic affairs at Shelton State Community College.

SERVICES TO SHELTON'S OFF-CAMPUS STUDENTS ENHANCED BY TOLL-FREE NUMBER

A toll-free number is now available for students who are interested in or are taking classes at Shelton State's four off-campus locations. This number was developed to increase communication between off-campus program students and the college. Shelton has off-campus programs in Boligee, Centerville, Greensboro, and Eutaw. If you know of persons who would be interested in taking classes at these sites, have them call: 1-800-239-SSCC. If you have questions about this program call Jim Purcell at 391-2323.

ART ON EXHIBIT IN LIBRARY ON SKYLAND BOULEVARD

"Nashville Babylon: Images on Fan Fair" is still on exhibit in the library. Beginning February 1, the exhibit will be "Watercolor and Graphic Art" by Paul Womack.

SHELTON STATE ANNOUNCES DATES FOR FINE ARTS SCHOLARSHIPS AUDITIONS

March 22 has been established as the application deadline for spring auditions for Fine Arts Scholarships to Shelton State Community College for next year, according to Linda Grote, department chair of the Speech and Fine Arts Division of the college.

"Spring auditions have been scheduled by each department," Grote said. "The college offers scholarships in art, music, theatre, and dance. Applications will be taken until all available scholarships are awarded. However, spring applicants who apply by March 22 will receive first consideration."

The following scholarship application requirements for each department have been established.

ART: Students who wish to apply for an art scholarship should submit a portfolio of 8-10 pieces of original art work along with an application by March 22.

ART SCHOLARSHIP CONTINUED-

MUSIC: Auditions for music scholarships require the performance of two contrasting solo compositions. Auditions are by appointment and are held twice a year in the spring and in the summer. Spring auditions are April 12-13. Application deadline is March 22.

THEATRE: Auditions for Theatre Scholarships require the performance of one dramatic monologue at least two minutes in length followed by an interview. Application deadline is March 22.

DANCE: Applicants for a dance scholarship will be contacted in order to schedule an audition in a ballet class that will be followed by an interview. Application deadline is March 22. For additional information on the Fine Arts Scholarship auditions, contact Grote at Shelton, 391-2262.

ALABAMA FIRE COLLEGE

The Alabama Fire College will host its 15th Fire Department Officers' Conference in Tuscaloosa from Feb. 25 through March 1 and National Fire Association -Instructional Techniques for Company Officers will be held Feb. 27-28.

SHELTON STATE'S BASKETBALL

Shelton State men's basketball will play Jefferson State in Birmingham on February 21 at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to come and boost our boys to victory. They also will be playing Lawson State in Birmingham on February 23 at 7:30 p.m.

SHELTON STATE GOLF TEAM FINISHES SECOND IN GULF INTERCOLLEGIATE TOURNAMENT

The Shelton State Golf Team finished a strong second in the recent Gulf States Intercollegiate Golf Tournament in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. The 36 hole tournament was held at the Cardinal course at Diamondhead Country Club. The Shelton State team, which is in its first year of competition, finished over 25 four-year colleges. Jonathan Watts, a freshman at Shelton State Community College was runner-up for individual honors, shooting a 75-76-151 score. The tournament, held February 15, 16, 1991, was plagued by 40 mph winds on Friday with temperatures hovering around 32 degrees.

Central Community College of Alexander City was the winning team shooting 306 as a team on the final day of the tournament. They are the NCAA Junior College champions. Shelton State led most of the tournament but was edged out of the tournament win on the last two holes by Alex City. Twenty-eight teams competed in the play.

The Shelton State team was represented by Jonathan Watts of Hueytown; Eddie Maffo, Hilton Head, S.C.; Lee Dempsey, Auburn, Alabama; Jerimy McGee, Slidell, La.; and Greg Nolan, Birmingham, AL.

In order and score of the low scoring four teams were: Alexander City Junior College, 631; Shelton State, 634; Jacksonville State University, 637; University of Southern Mississippi, 638.

Other teams represented include: University of New Orleans; University Missouri; Memphis State University; West Florida University; Louisiana Tech.; Tennessee State; Henderson State; Northwestern Louisiana University; Jackson State University; Southwestern Missouri; Nicols State University; Alabama at Birmingham; Pensacola JC; Shelby State JC; Marion Institute; LSU; Shreveport; Union University; Millsaps College; Mobile College; Tennessee Tech.; Jacksonville University (FLA); Southern Mississippi; Houston Baptist College; Delta State; Middle Tennessee State; and Southern University.

Shelton's next tournament will be March 17 at the University of North Alabama campus in Florence, Alabama.

REGISTRATION FOR SPRING QUARTER IS MARCH 7-8.

CLASSES BEGIN MARCH 11.